LIFELONG SERVICE

"I am going fishing." What an announcement! If asked who made it, and not told it was a Bible quote, we might guess "Grandpa" or "Uncle Fred," or admit, "I said that last summer!" But it is a Bible quote, from today's Gospel. The person who said it also once declared, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Yes, it's Peter! So today's announcement seems quite the comedown.

Last Sunday Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." But Peter seems determined to return to his pre-apostolic occupation, until Jesus intervenes, making Peter's later announcement deeper, "Lord, you know that I love you," and Peter's apostolic calling clearer, "Tend my sheep." Peter does so. Acts presents the consequences: Peter declares, "We must obey God rather than men." As Revelation proclaims, "Worthy is the Lamb"-to receive Peter's lifelong service, and ours.

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." -Revelation 5:12

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISER
SAINT MARGARET SUNDAY MISSAL

Growing in FAITH

Discovering hope and joy in the Catholic faith

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Gospel today sees Peter and his colleagues after the Resurrection, returning to Galilee and resuming the family business. They are fishing by night. Although it is true that fish feed by night, the mention of darkness here is more about the human spirit than it is about fishing advice. Modern life keeps darkness effectively under control; much of the world has been glowing radiantly through the night for a century. Yet just as surely as the Risen Christ breaks into Peter's fishing, so does he break into the usual patterns of our own darkness, electric lights notwithstanding. It is Easter, and we are the people of the light.

In our tradition, Evening Prayer, celebrated in monasteries, parishes, cathedrals, and homes everywhere, is a kind of solemn protest against the darkness and its claims, an act of praise for our light-bearing God, and a commitment to carrying that light forward. Sunset is a turning point of our day, felt less acutely in an electrified world, but still an effective reminder that one day darkness overtakes us all. Yet our Eastering has taught us in a hundred ways that the victory belongs to the Bearer of Light. Easter summons us to transform our everyday "blackouts," perhaps in a way as simple as a whispered prayer of thanks at evening for the blessings of the day.

NONVIOLENT COMMUNICATION WORKSHOPS

Blessed Trinity Parish is sponsoring a program, Nonviolent Communication (NVC) which was developed by Dr. Marshall Rosenberg. NVC has been described as a language of compassion and empathy that can peacefully help solve conflict in families, marriages, neighborhoods, faith communities and the workplace. In this day and age of polarization and division, our hope is that it can in some small way bring peace to our suffering world.

The program will be presented by Kathleen McDonnell and Barbara Koster. It will be held Thursdays, May 9th, 16th, 23rd and 30th. All are invited to attend one, two, three or all sessions.
